

LIFELONG LEARNING – YEAR 10

Topic Title:	Why am I learning this topic?	Key concepts:	Key Knowledge:	Key Skills:	Links to other areas of LLL
Healthy Relationships	This unit will look specifically at the impacts of stereotypes. Stereotypes can cause other people in society great upset and emotional distress. It is important that you consider the impact holding prejudices and stereotypes can have.	Stereotypes associated with the LGBTQ community, race, religion and disability	To know the consequences stereotypes can have on people in society in relation to LGBTQ, race, religion and disability	Explanation, discussion, evaluative, empathy	Relationships, Sex and Health Education, Cultural Appreciation
Relationships, Sex and Health Education (RSHE)	This unit will specifically look at the choices you have as individuals when considering the options surrounding sexual activity. It is important that you are fully aware of the options available to you with regards to contraception and pregnancy so you can make informed decisions.	Risky sexual behaviour, pregnancy, contraception, abortion, where to get advice from	To know the consequences of risky sexual behaviour (e.g. sexting) and to be aware of the choices you have with regards to contraception, pregnancy and abortion.	Explanation, discussion, evaluative,	Healthy Relationships
Careers	NJC to complete
Citizenship	We are all part of our local community and it is important that we know the role we can play within that. This unit looks at what it means to be a local citizen and how you can play a part in making it a great place to live.	The different forms of anti-social behaviour, the impact it can have and how to prevent it within the community. Associated laws.	To know the impacts of anti-social behaviour and how it can be prevented.	Explanation, discussion, evaluative,	Healthy Relationships, Cultural Appreciation

Healthy Living	With the pressures facing young people from social media today life is not always easy. Social media can distort real life and make us insecure. This unit looks at our body image and how we can overcome unrealistic expectations.	Unrealistic expectations on our body, reliance on social media, unhealthy lifestyles leading to ill-health (smoking, drug usage and alcohol)	To know how over reliance on social media can impact a person's image of themselves, the impacts of smoking, alcohol consumption and drug usage.	Explanation, discussion, evaluative, justification	Healthy relationships
Cultural Appreciation	Events in relation to Black Lives Matter have shown that we need to appreciate everyone in our local, national and global communities, irrespective of race or religion. This unit looks at events in history that has made the UK population structure what it is today.	UK migration in the past 50 years, current migration patterns, how migration has shaped the UK today, consequences of migration in the UK	To know historic migration patterns, to relate the current cultural diversity within the UK to past migration, to be aware of both sides of the argument in relation to the consequences of migration.	Explanation, discussion, evaluative, justification	Healthy relationships, Citizenship