15th October 2020

Dear Parent(s) / Carer(s)

The University of Hertfordshire has invited students to participate in their Sixth Form Personal Statement Conference commencing on Monday 26th through to Friday 30th October 2020 via Zoom.

Students will receive advice and tips on how to structure their personal statement and hear from some academics about what they are looking for. If students are required to attend an interview, some tips on what else they would like to know about you.

As well as personal statement advice, there will be sessions on a variety of university topics, such as the application process, student finance and more. All sessions will include an opportunity for Q&A. The programme for the week is below, and students need to book the sessions of interest here.
